

TABLE OF CONTENTS

STUDIES 1

Joanna Wilk-Racięska

Tools of cognitive poetics in the translation of poetic text: the role of lexical choice in reproducing the atmosphere of the original

Marta Chojnacka-Kuraś, Karolina Czerkas

Illness/disease (choroba) in contemporary Polish language: A frame semantics analysis

Mateusz Kminikowski

Theoretical approaches to the phenomenon of stereotypes in the context of concepts such as myth and prejudice

Aleksandra Kowalczyk

On extralinguistic motivation behind food-specific metaphorical transfers in the history of English

Dominika Kieszkowska, Paulina Wiśniewska

Simplicity as a human trait. Cognitive images encoded in the semantic structure of the expressions simple woman and simple man

Rafał Lenartowicz

Metaphor awareness as a facilitator of lexical retention in Polish secondary school EFL classrooms

Jennifer Smolka

Interpretation of conjunction and disjunction in legal discourse: What can pragmatic theories contribute?

Maciej Rauk

The verbal retort in the light of selected theoretical approaches

VARIA
2

Maja Janik, Natalia Michalik, Joanna

Szymczakowska, Mary Weidner

Towards inclusive education: Experiences from implementing the InterACT program in Poland