

Contents

Editorial (Eugenia Smyrnova-Trybulska and Anna Studenska)

I. Research on Distance, Online and Blended Learning in COVID-19 time

Oksana Strutynska and Mariia Umryk

Distance, Online and Blended Learning as Main Educational Trends During Pandemic 2020 Conditions

Nuno Silva and Isabel Alvarez

Cloud-Based Knowledge and Glocal Dilemmas in Higher Education

Lucie Zormanová

Learning Strategies Applied by University Students in Distance Learning

Nadia Balyk, Inna Grod, Yaroslav Vasylenko, Galyna Shmyger and Vasyl Oleksiuk

The Methodology of Using Augmented Reality Technology in the Training of Future Computer Science Teachers

II. Innovative Methods and Technology in Education

Svitlana Skvortsova and Tetiana Britskan

Organization of Mathematical Distance Learning in Primary Schools

Juan Arias Masa, Rafael Martín Espada and Juan Arias Abelaira

Teaching in the Subject “Systems Interconnection” at Extremadura University

Hanne-Lore Bobáková and Martina Chylková

The Use of Online Education by the Czech Population in the European Context

III. Theoretical, Methodological and Practical Aspects of ICT and E-learning in Education. E-Learning in Development of Key Competences and Skills in Education

Krzysztof Dziedzic

Measuring Student Involvement When Taking Tests in E-learning Courses

Małgorzata Wiczorek-Tomaszewska

Visual Literacy as a Dimension of the Young Generation’s Cultural Capital – Comparative Research

IV. Reports

Eugenia Smyrnova-Trybulska

A Report from the International Scientific Conference “Theoretical and Practical Aspects of Distance learning” DLCC2020 (www.dlcc.us.edu.pl) entitled “Innovative Educational Technologies, Tools and Methods for E-learning”, held online at the University of Silesia, Poland, October 12th and 13th, 2020

Contributors

In the “E-learning” Series