

Contents

Preface (MARTA KOBIELA-KWAŚNIEWSKA)

I. Manifestations of the (post)memories of Franco's violence in Spanish literature of the 20th and 21st centuries

ANA BELÉN ÁLVAREZ

Testimony and the Promotion of Social Justice: The Case of Juana Doña

ELŻBIETA BENDER

Exiles of Arturo Barea

MALGORZATA GASZYŃSKA-MAGIERA

Unnoticed voices: Tracking female gaze in In the Night of Time by Antonio Muñoz Molina

ADRIANA MINARDI

The Pharmakon of Illusion: Entre visillos (1957) by Carmen Martín Gaité between Gender Memory and Doxa

II. Representations of the (post)memories of dictatorial violence in Latin American literature of the 20th and 21st centuries

CECILIA MARÍA TERESA LÓPEZ BADANO

The literary expression of historical trauma in two contemporary Latin American novels: Amuleto (R. Bolaño, 1999); Insensatez (H. Castellanos Moya, 2004)

ALEJANDRO RAMÍREZ MENDEZ

“La historia que nos ha sido arrebatada”: Rethinking the Representation of Memory and History in Carlos Monsiváis’ Entrada libre

SUSANNA REGAZZONI

Violence Tale in Argentina: María Moreno Oración

Varia

MAGDALENA ZDRADA-COK

Immigration in Contemporary Novel: Social Issues and Persuasive Strategies.
The Case of Soleil amer by Lilia Hassaine