

Table of Contents

From the Editors (Dobrosława Wężowicz-Ziółkowska)

Articles

ECOLOGY / ECOETHICS / ECOPHILOSOPHY

PIOTR SKUBAŁA: Animals in the Era of Climate Crisis

ANNA SZKLARSKA: In the Trap of Tradition. Analysis of Ethical Arguments in the Discussion on Sport Game Hunting in Polish and British Culture

PAULINA SZYMONEK: Howls in the Anthropocene. Between Wildness and Captivity of Wolves in the Memoirs of Lois Crisler and Teresa Martino

KATARZYNA SZALEWSKA: What Does It Mean to Be a “Good Wolf”? About the Zoo
as a Spatial Discourse

PSYCHOLOGY

EWA CZERWIŃSKA-JAKIMIUK: Perpetrators of Aggression and Violence Against Animals: from Personality, Situational and Social Factors to Psychopathy and Anti-Social Personality Disorder

MAGDALENA KOZHEVNIKOVA: Mental Disorders in Animals from an Anthropological Point of View: A Research Reconnaissance

LITERARY STUDIES

MARZENA KUBISZ: Leo Changes the World: Children’s Vegan Literature and the Challenges of the Anthropocene

Table of Contents

LINGUISTICS

TOMASZ NOWAK: Communication of Complication and Complication of Communication. Communication of Human and Non-human Animals in the Light of the Assumptions of Biosemiotics

FILM STUDIES / ART / MEDIA

PATRYCJA CHUSZCZ: In Search of a Zoocentric Perspective in Non-fiction Cinema: the Example of Film Productions by the Open Cages Association

LAW

MARIA JANUSZCZYK: The Problem of African Swine Fever (ASF) in View of the Polish Legislation and Controversies Related to Current Regulations

Reviews

DARIUSZ GZYRA: Why Flexi-Veganism? [A Review of Peter Singer's book Why Vegan? Eating Ethically. New York–London: Liveright Publishing Corporation, 2020]