

Notes on Contributors

Daniel Dancák, MA, PhD. (1993), University of Health and Social Work of St. Elizabeth, Bratislava, Slovakia. He studied philosophy at the University of Copenhagen, Denmark. The dissertation entitled The Virtue of Uncertainty. A Metaethical Inquiry into Consciences was defended at the Faculty of Philosophy of the Catholic University in Ružomberok. His research focuses on phenomenology and metaethics. He was awarded the Rector's Prize of the Catholic University in Ružomberok. He has published in Ethical Perspectives, Theologos, and Acta Theologica et Religionistica.

Pavol Dancák, Professor, Ph.D., is a priest of the Greek-Catholic Archeparchy of Prešov. He holds degree from the Philosophical Faculty of Pontifical University of John Paul II in Cracow. On April 27, 2005, he attained habilitation in history of philosophy with a book Historical and Philosophical Reflections of Paideia in the Works of Karol Wojtyła at the Faculty of Arts, University of Prešov in Prešov, and on January 29, 2011, he was appointed Professor of History of Philosophy. Currently, he is Head of Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies.

John P. Hittinger, the Center for Thomistic Studies at the University of St. Thomas, Houston, Texas, USA. He is the founder and director of the Pope John Paul II Forum for the Church in the Modern World. He holds degrees from the University of Notre Dame and the Catholic University of America. Dr. Hittinger has published articles on political philosophy, just war theory, and the thought of Karol Wojtyła. He is an ordinary member of the Pontifical Academy of St. Thomas Aquinas.

Karol Jasiński, Professor UWM, habilitated doctor of humanities in the field of philosophy, priest of the Archdiocese of Warmia, graduated from the Faculty of Theology at the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn. He obtained his doctorate at the Faculty of Philosophy of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin in Lublin. Then he habilitated at the Faculty of Humanities of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń. Currently, he is an academic and lecturer at the Chair of Philosophy and Canon Law and chairman of the Scientific Discipline Council at the Faculty of Theology of the University of Warmia and Mazury in Olsztyn. His subjects of interest include social philosophy and the philosophy of religion. Active participant of about forty national and international academic conferences. Author of the monograph The Relationship between Religion and the Public Sphere in Charles Taylor's Social and Political Philosophy and about 100 publications in journals and multi-author monographs.

Peter Vansač, Professor, Ph.D., is a priest of the Greek-Catholic Eparchy of Košice. He holds a degree from the Faculty of Theology of the John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin. On April 14, 2014, he attained habilitation in the field of social work with a habilitation thesis on the topic of Charity as the mission of the Church in the St. Elizabeth University of Public Health and Social Work in Bratislava, Slovakia. He was appointed a professor at the St. Elizabeth University of Public Health and Social Work on June 18, 2018. At the same time, he works as a university professor in the field of social work and guarantees the study field of social work at the St. Elizabeth University of Public Health and Social Work. Professionally, he deals with the spiritual paradigm and applied spirituality in social services.

Krzysztof T. Wieczorek, Professor, Ph.D., director of the Unit of Logic and Methodology of the Institute of Philosophy at the University of Silesia in Katowice. Studied mathematics at the University of Silesia in Katowice; two semesters of theology at Albert Ludwigs University of Freiburg, and philosophy in Cracow and Lublin. Scientific titles and degrees: 1978 Master of Science in Mathematics MSM; 1986 Doctorate degree in Philosophy; 1994 Habilitation Thesis in Philosophy; 2005 Full professor in Philosophy. Author of four books, co-author of five. Published more than 200 articles. Visiting professor at J. Palacký University, Olomouc; M. Bela University, Banská Bystrica; Pavol Jozef Šafárik University, Košice. Research cooperation, among others, with Die Wolfsburg Katholische Akademie des Bistums Essen; Renovabis Solidaritätsaktion der Diözese München/Freising, Europäische Akademie für Lebensforschung, Integration und Zivilgesellschaft, Wien.

Mariusz Wojewoda, PhD., habil., Professor at the Institute of Philosophy of the University of Silesia in Katowice. Author of Pluralizm aksjologiczny i jego implikacje we współczesnej filozofii religii (Katowice 2010), editor of three volumes of articles and the author of several dozen articles published in Polish publishing houses as well as Polish and international journals. Member of the Board of the International Research Team CultMedia. Research areas: axiology, media ethics, the philosophy of technology, the philosophy of religion, cognitive studies.