

Contents

The Memory Chalets, the shards of Memories (Joanna Kisiel, Monika Ładoń) |

Outlines and Revisions

Stanisław Chankowski: Community and Narrativisation: A Contribution to the Critique of Hayden White's Constructivism |

Kinga Anna Gajda: Post-Monumental Places of Memory as Active Tools in (Post-)Holocaust and (Post-)Memory Experiences |

Explorations and Autopsies

Ireneusz Gielata: Boxes and a Dog Dummy in The Leopard, by Giuseppe Tomasi di Lampedusa: On Life in the Midst of Remains of Words and Things |

Magdalena Brodacka: Bohumil Hrabal's Who I Am, or the Question of Identity in the Very Heart of Europe |

Daria Nowicka: Revision(s) – Andrzej Wróblewski's Dwelling on the Past |

Mateusz Florczak: Recreating a Universe of Trauma. On (Post)memorial A Brief Stop on the Road from Auschwitz by Göran Rosenberg |

Dominika Olga Gołaszewska: The Childhood Experience of War in Irena Krzywicka's Dzieci wśród nocy and Aniela Gruszecka's Od Karpat nad Bałtyk |

Contents

Erwina Dybisz: The Literary Testimony of an (Over)sensitive Memory:
On Janina Kościalkowska's Łódź Bukowa |

Anna Karonta: Chernobyl Prayer: A Chronicle of the Future Conflict in
Postcatastrophic Narrations |

Readings and Diagnoses

Ewelina Suszek: Beyond the Cultural Map of Suffering |

Andrzej Juchniewicz: Poets and Their Animals |