

Guide for the Reviewer

A request to prepare a review will be sent by the leading editor to the e-mail address of the reviewer. Reviewers' accounts have been created by the editors. If you are not among the reviewers of this journal and want to perform such a function, go to the journal's webpage and select Register in the registration form by selecting the Reviewer option.

Query to Perform a Review

If you receive a Request to Perform an Article's Review on your e-mail address, click on the link attached in the message. A page with information about the application will be displayed.

In the Query section, you will find an abstract and keywords that relate to the text and review schedule. It will be given both the final date of the decision to prepare a review and the final date to which it should be drawn up and to send the editorial office the recommendation.

Guidelines

If you have agreed to make a review you will get access to the full text of the article.

In the Guidelines section you will be asked to become familiar with guidelines for the review. Next, go to step 3 Review.

Download & Review

In the Download & Review section download the file with the text of the article (click the name of the file) and then save it on your data storage carrier.

Enter a review - fill out the review form by selecting the Review form and after filling it in, click the Save button.

You can also attach and send additional files (the author's text with your corrections). For this purpose in the Send section, attach the file by clicking the Send button.

When writing a review, you can correspond with the leading editor. To do this, in the Review Discussions section, select Add discussion. Select the person you want to send the message to.
